FISHER TAKES HIS TURN AT SHUTTING OUT THE MACKMEN

did King, who was shifted to short.

The Yanks' daily first inning charge got under way with a pass to High. Peck forced High, but Pipp tripled to the right field wall and scored Peck. Baker doubled to right and scored Pipp and was out trying to score on Magee's single to Schang. King made a wonderful stop of Gedeon's base hit in the sec-ond inning, but threw into the ground and Ged gadded to second. He came in n two infield outs.

Gilhooley Eludes Pursuers.

A run by Gilhooley in the fifth inning did the s made under peculiar circumstances. was the result of foxy shuttling up I down the base lines by Gilhooley and High while everybody on the home team except the outfielders was trying to run down one or the other of the ab-breviated but elusive New York gents. There was more weaving back and forth and dodging than in any previous runup eason, and it wasn't over until the New Yorkers had accomplished their purpose of getting a run. Gilhooley tripled his way to third. He headed for the plate when High jumped a grounder to Rowe. Rowe's throw turned him back and the chase was on. They couldn't catch Gil to save themselves, and while he was dancing for-ward and backward High reached third. Thereupon Gil flitted back to that bag still untouched and High drew the pursuit to himself by back pedalling for second. By the time High was pinched, Rowe to Meyers to King to McInnis to Lawry to McInnis, Gilhooley was panting at the plate.

Baker doubled in the sixth. Magee singled, Gedeon beat out an infield hit, Nunamaker singled and Bush, after the plate had been left entirely uncovered by Meyer, when Gilhooley jabbed the hall to the infield, made a wild throw to first trying to nip Gil. Three more runs Davey Robertson, an agile and eagle eyed outfielder as good as they come, had much to do with the uncommon concern of Pat Moran's strong man. In the fifth inning with one out and one on Davey slathered one of Alec's heat attempts at a curve with such Alec's best attempts at a curve with such vim and vigor that it brought up against the paling in deep right centre. Robertson, who is somewhat of a sprinter when socks and home runs hang in the balance, before the spheroid could be retrieved.

This cannon like drive that hurtled toward the barrier like a good golf drive, rising in little jumps as it cleared the frantic spring of Bancroft, gave the Giants a two run lead for the second time.

Mack did some rearranging of his very first inning Kauff and Whitted little boys. Lawry a fast youth, was at second base.
